

The background image is a high-end hotel lobby. It features a polished floor reflecting the lights. On the left, there are two white, egg-shaped lounge chairs. In the foreground, there are modern, colorful armchairs in shades of purple, white, and grey. In the center, a reception desk with a glass and wood finish is visible, with staff members behind the counter. Large, ornate chandeliers with many small lights hang from the ceiling. A large, abstract artwork is displayed on the wall. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and modern.
