COMMUNICATION PROTOCOL

FOR CRISIS SITUATIONS

A crisis is any incident which draws unfavorable attention to NH Hotel Group and could be potentially damaging to its reputation. IF YOU HAVE ANY DOUBT ABOUT THE CRISIS SEVERITY. ALWAYS CONFIRM IT WITH YOUR NEXT NOTIFICATION LEVEL

LEVEL & ASSESMENT OF A CRISIS

LOW LEVEL

Incident with low impact, with potential to generate adverse media coverage, minor accidents, minor manientance failures... Incidences that can be managed by the hotel.

CRISIS MANAGEMENT & NOTIFICATION LEVEL

Hotel Director

Alert Emergency Services (If applicable)

A. No

but not globally

MODERATE LEVEL

Incidences that affect hotel revenues.

HIGH LEVEL

Incidents: serious booking problems, quest claims, dissemination of confidential information, robberies. scandals affecting quests or staff... It damages the reputation of NH Hotel Group.

CRITICAL LEVEL

Includes an accident, fire, explosion, incident involving death or injury to guests or staff, suicide, threat of terrorism, food poisoning... Incidences that damage the reputation of NH Hotel Group.

Concerning to theft, misuse or loss of protected data lalways contact I first to: SVP Compliance & Data Protection SVP IT & Systems Alert I the next level (HQ or BU)

Could it damage NHHG reputation? BU Alert Managing Director Marketing Director Communication responsible BU HQ Aleri Chief Operations Officer Chief Marketing Officer

Communication

responsible HQ

IMPACT: Could it damage NHHG reputation globally?

GLOBAL

B. Yes, locally Create BU Crisis Cabinet C. Extremelly Create HQ

> Crisis Cabinet A. Yes. global impact

B. No

- Be human-express concern for those involved
- Keep it simple
- Ensure that key messages are communicated
- Be aware of the audiences, you are talking in public
- · Avoid the term "no comment"
- Off the record does not exist!

- Do not SHARE or SEND restricted, confidential or internal information through unauthorized media
- Never lie
- Speculate on causes of the incident or place blame
- Speculate on the resumption of normal operations for the hotel

No one, other than authorized spokesperson depending on the crisis level, may speak to the media or any third party about the incident!

It is imperative that members of staff do not speak to the media or any third party, however well briefed they may consider themselves to be.

CONTACT INFO

The names & telephone numbers of the responsible will be fulfilled by your Hotel Director.

HOTEL DIRECTOR REGIONAL DIRECTOR BU OPERATIONS DIRECTOR

BU MANAGING DIRECTOR

COMMUNICATION RESPONSIBLE